James Tudor, of Madison county, was arrested on Friday and lodged in jail here by John Broaddus, a constable of that county. He is another brother-inlaw of S. D. Turner, who is in jail, charged with the killing of Sebastian, and is said to be the unknown party who fired and made his escape during the Turner-Sebastian fight last Monday, in which three brothers-in-law put eight bullets into the body of Marion

A large crowd was in town Friday from this county and Madison to attend the trial of S. D. and Jack Turner. At 1 o'clock Sheriff Robinson, with an armed guard, conducted the prisoners to the court-room, which was immediately filled by a rushing, surging throng of relatives and friends of both sides and many curiosity-seekers. Trouble was averted and it is now believed that there will be no more bloodshed. The defense filed an affidavit stating that the defendants did not believe that they could get a fair trial before Judge Burnside. After considerable argument by counsel, the judge retired from the bench and Squire J. A. Baker, of Paint Lick, was agreed upon to hear the case, beginning to-morrow, Tuesday. About 70 witnesses were recognized and the trial promises to be very sensational.

Another he calls a free turnpike steer, because he tears down fences and goes where he pleases; he has hair in his forehead six inches long and will make a tough piece of beef. He has one which he calls "John G.," which he always had to pet and hire and fee with dainty meals. On one occassion he got in with 82 other cattle and was detailed, when he returned to his lot and agreed to eat any kind of food. Another steer which he calls "Bolivar." is the most noted steer in the C. Braune fcr 1892, 194 acres, Kingsbunch. When he bought them he was a good looking animal, but Thompson always said there was something wrong with him. When purchased he weighed 940 pounds, but with the best treatment he has lost flesh until he only weighs 730 pounds. An investigation revealed the fact that he chews his cud two ways.

JUDGE BURNAM, republican member of the court of appeals from this district, had a street fight at Richmond Friday, or more properly possibly, it prevailed on some over zealous republican and boltocrat directors of the Madison National Bank, of which he was president up to his candidacy, to to aid in his election. Settlement day Deatherage, who is a leading democratic director, objected to such use of the funds. This precipitated a quarrel and the result was that when the men met on the street afterwards, Mr. Deatherage landed two vigorous blows with his fist on the appellate judge's anatomy, before the judge could do anything more than protest. seen. I have used the Kentucky Dragg Drill, the McSherry Dragg Drill and other drills, but I pronounce the Superior Disc Drill the superior to all of them. I used it in all kinds of land, grassy, rough, &c., and am well satisfied with it and now have fine prospects for a good wheat crop. My wheat was well put in and there was less uncovered wheat than I' ever saw after any drill. WM. BECK.

BOBBITT TALKS POLITICS. To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

CRAB ORCHARD, July 2 .- I desire to write a few lines on the political situation in Lincoln county ond to agree with Judge Jewell that "politics is h-l'', Now, I have been importuned by some leading republicans to let my name go before the republican convention as a candidate for county attorney to defeat a democratic aspirant for that office, who they say will certainly defeat Col. T. J. Culton for the nomination in Mr. Culton's own party, and that I am the only attorney that can get the nomination for that office over the aforesaid democrat. 'Tis strange that a democrat can get the nomination for an office in a republican convention over a republican. I have also been asked to run for county judge by men of both parties and earnestly requested to run for representative. Don't the honors come thick and fast ? But I am a candidate for no office, but quietude at home amid authors of a bygone age.

I hope the republicans will give that matchless judge, M. C. Saufley, no opposition. He is the ablest jurist and the most brilliant man in the district. The Spartan mother being asked-"Where are your jewels?" pointed with the finger of triumph at her manly sons and said "These are my jewels." When Stanford is asked "Where are your jewels?" she can point with the finger of pride to Judge Saufley and say "There is one of my jewels and by the blaze of his genius you can find my other jewels."

Nor ought John Sam Owsley, Jr., to have any opposition. He is the best Commonwealth's attorney for his age I

The present members of the court of appeals furnish us a melancholy example of what partisanship will do. The republicans are too much addicted to the habit of voting for partisans, without regard to qualification.

POVERTY AND DISTRESS.

(To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL) DEAR SIR:-I write to tell you that in my various travels over the State I meet haggard and care worn faces of men and women in our large cities and in all the small towns there is great want among all classes of the people wherever I have been, especially in the Blue-Grass counties. The "gold standard" has been on all occasions heartily denounced and on almost every occasion I find that the people are fearfully the decline, enterprises are at a stand- their girl friends Thursday evening. still, and in many places the people ar living from hand to mouth; enforced idleness diminishes the market for everything that brings forth good times. Everywhere I see impoyerished idleness in hunger and rags. The owners mortgages, the foreclosures of which fries was made secretary. will take their homes from them, and still leave them in debt to the morta result of the demonetization of silver lowing: by the great crime of 1873, and the adoption of the gold standard. Under this vicious system thousands of tons of every kind of commodities are tumbled upon the market and sold at auction, often for a quarter of their value, because money must be had at whatthe sale of his property. Legislation therefore be it which increases the value of a dollar creasing in purchasing power, by the friend, Judge W. O. Hansford. aid of legislation, is called "sound monrepeal. Such are the workings of the vicious monetary system we have been laboring under ever since the

MT. VERNON.

Elder Farrer preached two excellent sermons at the Christ church Sunday. The circus will be here Thursday and a large crowd is expected. The vacant lot near the depot will be used for tents, etc.

John Scarbrough, aged 16, a son of Dr. Scarbrough, of Pine Hill, was so badly frightened during a thunder storm last Wednesday that he dropped dead as he returned from viewing the terific electric display.

The glorious 4th was celebrated at Brodhead by a big picnic. A large number from here attended. The Mt. Vernon Band furnished the music. With the mercury up to 100 in the shade, it was a fine day to while away a pleasant hour in a grassy nook on the river bank. But alas! there was no shade and very little water to be obtained, even to drink.

The Teachers' Institute will begin July 19th, the time selected by Supt. Andrew Baker. New faces are seen at each annual meeting of the Rockcastle teachers, but several familiar faces will appear this year, among them being Misses Ella Joplin, Ellen Butner, Ora Hansel, Mrs. Georgia Rice and Messrs. S. H. Martin and Jasper Brown, all good teachers.

Mr. D. K. Totten, a prominent republican, had a long letter in the Signal last week, relative to the condition of his party. He says that some one who is riding in the "Bethurum Band Wagon" doubts his loyalty to his party. We have been told that the above title has been given by a Grand Mogul of this district to the successful candidates for nomination by the rebublican party of Rockcastle. We suppose the application is that while they make the music the party obediently falls into line and and follows the soul-enchanting strains up to the polls.

Mrs. Nancy Hoooker, accompanied by her sisters, Misses Lena and Clara Kennedy, are visiting Mrs. M. C. Williams. Mrs. John Fish has returned from a visit to Williamsburg. Mr. C. C. Williams was in Frankfort and Louisville last week on business. Mrs. Ed Woodall went to Hazel Patch Saturday to attend the burial of Mr. Geo. Carpenter. Miss McGee, of London, is Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasthe guest of triends here. Misses An- ant, safe and reliable.
